

Declaration Letter of Difference

We, the undersigned, hereby declare that

There are two type of headphones. One is a headset, and the other is for neck. The two headphones are electric identical with only difference being the power switch and output ports.

The difference details: One headphone is called the headset with two earphones. It's built-in touch the power switch, and earphone connecting rod by a switching of power supply.

The other we called the neck set without headphones, and it's added a headphone output block and an audio induction coil, a power switch to toggle switch.

Sincerely,
